SUMMARY INFORMATION

Title: The Professional Homemakers’ Club of Greenville Records
Dates: 1966-1970
Accession #: 0000-024
Creator: The Professional Homemakers’ Club of Greenville
Physical Description: 0.42 linear feet (1 box)
Languages: Collection material in English.
Processed by: The collection was processed by Julia Cowart in 2018.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

Acquisition:
The donor and donation date of The Professional Homemakers’ Club of Greenville Records is unknown.

USING THE COLLECTION

Access Restrictions: None.

Preferred Citation: The Professional Homemakers’ Club of Greenville records, Acc. 0000-024, Special Collections and Archives, Furman University, Greenville, S.C.

Organizational Sketch:
The Professional Homemakers’ Club of Greenville was organized in April 1966. The club’s purpose was to promote home economics as a profession and to provide opportunities for professional home economists and members of other fields to cooperate in the attainment of the well-being of individuals and of families, the improvement of homes, and the preservation of values significant in home life.

Membership was limited to 22 and members were required to have a degree in home economics or a related field.
SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Professional Homemakers’ Club of Greenville Records consist of yearbooks for 1966 to 1969 that contain their constitution and bylaws. There is also a notebook with attendance, dues and minutes for 1966-1970.

COLLECTION INVENTORY

- Notebook, attendance records, 1970 and undated; dues, undated; minutes 1966-1970