South Caroliniana Primary Index

Box #1: B.C. Jones Collection
- Brochures, papers.

Box #2: Greenville City, County, and Civic Organizations
- Civil War
- Community planning and development (4 Folders)
- Community planning and development—Workshop on Wheels

Box #3: Greenville City, County, and Civic Organizations
- Community Council of Greenville County
- Council of Social Agencies
- County Council on Human Relations
- Greenacre Children’s Home
- Greenville Almanac
- Greenville, city of, budget—1954
- Greenville, city of, Financial, Tax, Meetings
- Greenville, city of, Service 1831-2006

Box #4: Greenville City, County, and Civic Organizations including Hospitals
- Greenville County Clubs and Organizations Directory, 1971-1972
- Greenville County Museum of Art
- Greenville County Workshop—1940
- Greenville General Hospital
- Greenville Guards
- Hopewell Tuberculosis Hospital
- Kilgore-Lewis House
- Law enforcement
- maps, Greenville
- Promotions and advertising re: Greenville
- Recreation
- Shoeless Joe Jackson Museum & Baseball Library
- Welfare Agencies

Box #5: Programs, Greenville Musical and Arts
- The Keowee Trail Program, a Historical Pageant, November 11, 1921 [also cataloged SpecColl F272 .K46]
- Grand Vocal & Instrumental Concert, September 23, 1862
- Innes and His Band, Beattie Hall, November 5 [1800s]
- Lewis Morrison in “Faust,” Grand Opera House, February 17 [1800s]
- The Boston Ideal Opera Co. present “Martha,” Grand Opera House, ca. 1800s
- The Anton Scott Concert, Grand Opera House, May 25, 1905
• Hanford and Drofnah in “Taming of the Shrew,” Grand Opera House, undated [1800s]
• The Louise Brehany Ballard and Opera Concerts, Washington Street Hall, February 1, auspices Furman University Athletic Association [1898-1899]
• “Cariolanus,” Grand Opera House, Program, October 30, 1901 [2 copies]
• “Puss in Boots, or Witch’s Revenge,” Grand Opera House, Program, undated [1902]
• Thomas Jefferson in “Rip Van Winkle,” Grand Opera House, Season 1904-1905
• “Blind Tom,” Grand Opera House Program, December 4, 1901
• The Famous Violinist Edouard Remenyi, Beattie Hall, January 23, 1897
• Official Program, May Festival, Musical Art Society, Grand Opera House, May 15-17, 1907 [2 copies]
• Program, “Christmas around The World,” Greenville Youth Choraliers and Crescent Youth Symphony, December 5-6, 1969, Memorial Auditorium
• Programme, Rudolph E. Magnus presents “Everyman,” Opera House, undated [1904]
• Ladies Concert Programme, April 28, 1871
• Bostonia Sextette Club, programme, undated
• “The Pirates of Penzance or The Slave of Duty,” The Greenville Savoyards Light Opera Society [May 29-June 1, 1980]
• “The Louise Brehany Ballad and Opera Concerts” February 1, 1899

Box #6: Notable Citizens of South Carolina
- Barrett family
- Daniel, Charles
- First Settlers of South Carolina
- Guess, Joseph Dechard 1821-1981
- Knight, Jonathan 1787 – 1858

Box #7: Journal, “Legislature 1908” newspaper clippings

Box #8: South Carolina Clubs, Groups, and Churches
- Alpha Phi Chi Sorority
- Chautauqua
- Chester County Genealogical Society
- churches (other than Baptist)
- Greenville County Chapter, American Red Cross
- Greenville County Historical Society
- Greenville Women’s Club
- Junior Charities of Greenville, SC
- South Carolina Democratic Party
- South Carolina Press Association
- Travelers Rest Historical Society [The History Museum of Travelers Rest]
- Y.M.C.A.
- Y.W.C.A.

Box #9: Upstate Business and Industry
- Alley Gator Raw Bar & Grille
- Alester G. Furman Co.
- C. H. Workman Mill, Cashville, SC
- Greenville and Columbia Railroad Company
- Greenville and Paris Mountain Dummy Line
- Greenville-Spartanburg Airport
- The Furman Agency
- Norwood National Bank
- Pacolet Manufacturing Company, photograph, Remains of Mill #3
- People’s National Bank

Box #10: Upstate Educational Institutes
- Aiken Female Institute
- Anderson University, a.k.a. Anderson College, Anderson Junior College
- Benedict Institute
- Bob Jones University
- Chicora College (see SC Postcard collection and online catalogue)
- Greenville High School
- Nursing, school of, General Hospital
- Peabody School
- Sans Souci Home for Girls School
- South Carolina Governor’s School for the Arts
- Schools, public
- White Horse Academy
- Wofford College

Box #11: Willie Earle
- correspondence concerning media coverage
- media coverage
- photographs

Box#12: Historic Photographs
- Gravestone of the horse, Maud
- Photo, gathering in front of Altamont Hotel, Paris Mountain, including a band and a horse, possibly Maud. [Copy of photo from Greenville County: a Pictorial History by Choice McCain, p. 62]
- Greenville Traction Company Trolley