SUMMARY INFORMATION

Title:  George C. Young Collection of German War Photographs and Realia
Dates:  ca. 1933-1945
Accession #:  2003-011
Creator:  Young, George C., 1926-2000
Physical Description:  0.42 linear feet (1 box)
Languages:  Collection material in English.
Collection Summary:  Captured items from the German Embassy in Tientsin, China, 1945.

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

Acquisition:
George C. Young donated this material in 1986.

Biographical Sketch:
George C. Young was a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps., having served in Peking, China, during the China Conflict at the close of World War II. Marine ground and air units were deployed to repatriate Japanese and Koreans who remained in China, as well as protect American lives and property.

USING THE COLLECTION

Access Restrictions:  None.

Preferred Citation:  [Identification of item], George C. Young Collection of German War Photographs and Realia, Special Collections and Archives, Furman University, Greenville, S.C.

ARRANGEMENT

Materials are arranged by format.
SCOPE AND CONTENT
This collection consists of a Nazi swastika armband, six photographs of German officers and military personnel, and one photograph portrait of Adolf Hitler.

COLLECTION INVENTORY
- Nazi swastika armband
- Photographs of German officers and military personnel
- Portrait photograph of Adolf Hitler (9in. x 12in.), undated